

Photography Policy – Wells Carnival Ltd

Effective Date: 01.09.2025

Last Updated: 01.09.2025

1. Wells Carnival Committee will have designated photographers at events. All will be clearly identifiable and anyone not wishing to have their photograph taken should make themselves known to the photographer in question.
2. By attending Wells Carnival, whether as a participant or otherwise, you acknowledge that images may be captured during the event using film photography, digital photography, video or other medium and may be used by Wells Carnival Ltd to promote the organisation, it's work or future events through their website, social media, promotional leaflets etc and the images may also be provided to the media for publication in local or national newspapers or magazines.
3. Where possible and practical to do so the Wells Carnival photographer will seek permission in respect of image capture. Individuals attending the event are deemed to have given consent by attending or remaining at the event.
4. Wells Carnival Ltd shall take no responsibility for the capture and use of images taken at the event by a third party, not directly engaged by Wells Carnival to do so on their behalf, and accepts no liability for the actions of such third parties.
5. Wells Carnival is in the public domain so please be aware that images and sound recordings of participants will be made by varying forms of media by others present at the various events, and also during the Carnival Parade, and as such these recordings/images may be shared on social media platforms etc.
6. Members of the public and the media do not need a permit to film or photograph in public places
7. By attending the event and entering the Carnival Parade, you agree that participant(s) are permitted to have photographs (and other forms of images and media taken) for publicity purposes, which will be used at the discretion of the Wells Carnival Committee.
